

Christoph Hartmann studied under Georg Fischer before continuing his studies under Prof. Günther Passin at the Academy of Music in Munich. He graduated with a Postgraduate Diploma in Performance in oboe and chamber music. Christoph Hartmann has won several prizes at international competitions in Toulon, Genf and Tokio.

His first engagement with the Stuttgart Philharmonic was followed shortly by a seat with the Berlin Philharmonic in 1992. A teaching position at the Herbert-von-Karajan-Academy came soon after. He currently tours on a regular basis as a soloist across Europe, Asia and the USA.

Discography: the CD "Fantasia Italiana" with operatic phrases of Antonio Pasculli has had tremendous success amongst critics and audiences worldwide. This CD had been released by EMI as a world premiere. Christoph Hartmann's second CD, 'Bella Napoli', was recorded together with his colleagues from the "Ensemble Berlin". Discover more on:

OBOE MASTER CLASS 2009

VIGOLENO

Municipality of Vernasca (PC)

ITALY

The place

The Village of Vigoleno is certified as one of the "Most Beautiful Italian Villages" and stands out because of the elegance of its forms and the integrity of the whole defensive structure. The village contains impressive and intact embattled walls, partly covered by a panoramic walkway. Its exclusive dimension will frame your stay creating the ideal atmosphere for your studies.

Uno dei
Borghi più belli
d'Italia

The venue of the course

At the entrance of the Village there is Casa Tanzi, a meeting and exhibition place that houses shows and seminars.

Casa Tanzi is also the venue for a "shows and arts laboratory" with environments for didactics and auditions.

The renovated complex was the ancient inn of Vigoleno and offers many guestrooms.

The classes will be held in English, German and Italian.
